

VOCABULARY

PREPOSITIONS OF TIME (1)

Complete the following sentences by writing a preposition of time in the gaps.

1. I can't leave _____ my brother returns - he has borrowed my car today.
2. The space race between the United States and the Soviet Union began _____ 4 October 1957 with the launch of 'Sputnik,' the first artificial satellite.
3. The washing machine has been broken _____ several days, so I have been using a neighbour's.
4. I hope that we arrive _____ time to see the opening act, as I have heard they are excellent musicians.
5. Vanessa has been ill _____ last Tuesday, so I have been caring for her.

PREPOSITIONS OF TIME (2)

Complete the following sentences by writing a preposition of time in the gaps.

1. Jerry and Kyle will be away on a business trip _____ Monday to Thursday afternoon.
2. The meeting will be held at the Hampton Hotel _____ Friday morning, and _____ Saturday there will be a dinner party for all the attendees.
3. We were all very frightened _____ the first few minutes, but when the plane reached its cruising altitude we were able to relax.
4. The shortage of oil _____ the 1970's caused petrol prices to increase, and started a worldwide economic depression.
5. Latin was the language used to exchange ideas in Europe _____ the 17th and 18th centuries.

PREPOSITIONS OF TIME (3)

Complete the following sentences by writing a preposition of time in the gaps.

1. If you are in Washington D.C. _____ Christmas time, you will be able to see the national Christmas tree.
2. Ian is a bad employee. He never arrives to work _____ time, and he always leaves early.
3. We will be at home _____ 5 and 7 o'clock, so phone then.
4. Ralph will not be in Liverpool _____ the weekend.

PREPOSITIONS OF TIME (4)

Describe the differences between the following sentences.

-Your friend Jennifer has to leave before 8 o'clock tonight to catch her plane.

-Your friend Jennifer has to leave after 8 o'clock tonight to catch her plane.

-Your friend Jennifer has to leave by 8 o'clock tonight to catch her plane.

-Your friend Jennifer has to leave at 8 o'clock tonight to catch her plane.

PREPOSITIONS OF TIME (5)

What do you do on the ‘Three Kings Feast Day’?

How long have you been studying with Elingua?

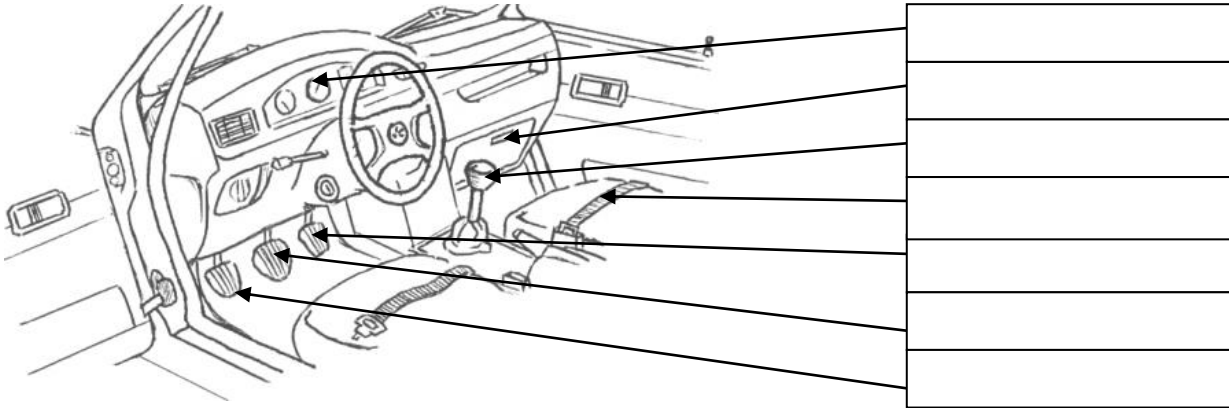

What do you think life will be like in Spain in the 21st century?

What do you like to do at the weekend?

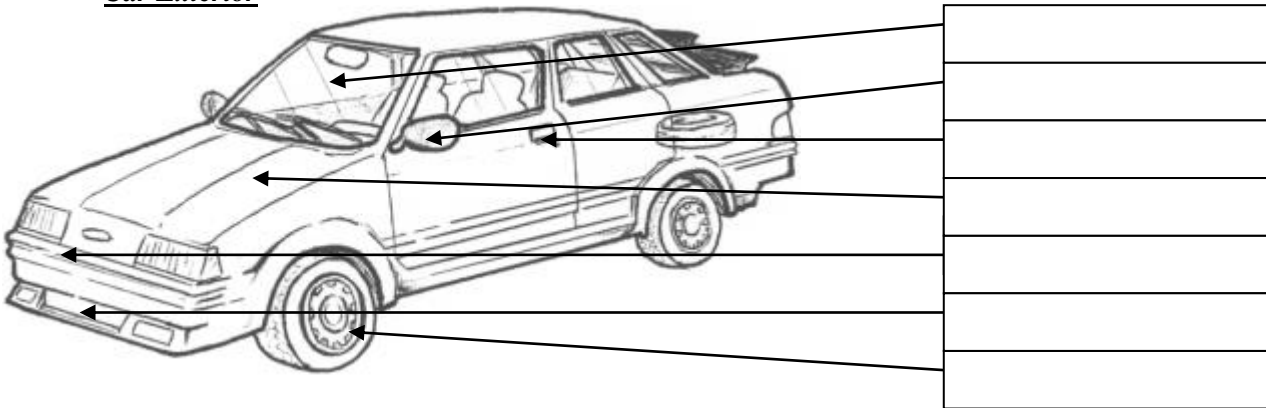

VOCABULARY OF TRANSPORT & DRIVING (1)

Complete the following table using the words at the bottom of the page.

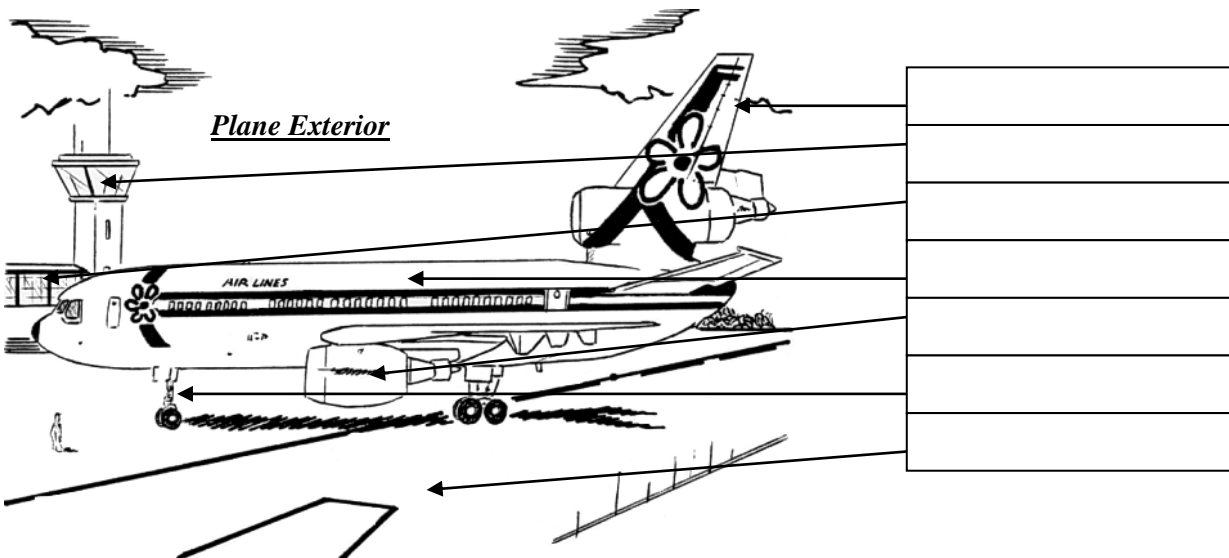

Car Interior

Car Exterior

Plane Exterior

List of Words: seatbelt, boot, tail, windscreen wipers, hubcap, wing mirror, fuselage, speedometer, terminal, handbrake, headlight, clutch, boarding pass, glove compartment, cockpit, gear stick, accelerator pedal, bonnet, landing gear, engine, footbrake, bumper, runway, number plate, door handle, control tower, windscreen.

| | | |
|---|--|--|
|  | Método Elingua Progress Class Level 17V | Versión 1.0 Página 7 de 8 |
|---|--|--|

VOCABULARY OF TRANSPORT & DRIVING (2)

Respond to each of these situations by saying how you would react.

A child runs out in front of your car while you are driving down a street. The child is only 15 metres from your car.

You have forgotten to bring your wallet with you. You are driving towards the market when you realise this.

You need to get from one end of London to the other. You do not have a car.

VOCABULARY OF TRANSPORT & DRIVING (3)

The place where two roads meet is called...

The 'R' on a gear stick is...

The device that keeps a boat from moving is called...

The underground in London is also known as...

The people who work on a boat are called...

The place where the pilots of an aeroplane sit is called...

The official 'rulebook' for drivers is called...

A street where traffic is only permitted to go in one direction is called...

The place where people should cross the street is called...

A roundabout is...